WeGo prepared for planned protests

NASHVILLE – WeGo Public Transit is working closely with the Metropolitan Nashville Police Department (MNP) and other state and local agencies over the coming days due to reports about planned protests for this weekend and Inauguration Day next week on Wednesday, January 20, 2021. WeGo is actively communicating with MNP, increasing the presence of contracted security at WeGo Central, and scheduling supplemental vehicles and Operators to support service and any additional community needs.

Members of the public are encouraged to follow WeGo Public Transit on social media and visit WeGoTransit.com for continuous updates. Customers can also check one of the mobile real-time information tools such as Google Transit or the Transit App for detailed information and service updates.
